

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, WINNEBA
Institute for Educational Development and Extension

DIBE
Diploma in Basic Education by distance

Primary school administration and supervision

Primary school administration and supervision

BEC 151

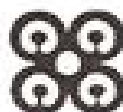

J O Mankoe

Anthony Mensah

Institute for Educational Development and Extension
University of Education, Winneba

▶	INTRODUCTION	10
▶	SECTION 1 DEFINITION AND STRUCTURE OF PRIMARY SCHOOL EDUCATION	12
	Primary school - what it is	12
	Objectives of primary school education	12
	Inquiry and creative skills	13
	Personal and social attitudes	13
	Administrative structure of primary education in Ghana	14
	Minister of education - institutional level	15
	Director-general - managerial level	17
	District Director of Education	17
	Circuit supervisor	18
	Headteacher	18
	Classroom teacher	19
▶	SECTION 2 ACHIEVING EFFECTIVE MANAGEMENT AND SUPERVISION IN THE PRIMARY SCHOOL I	22
	Making effective decisions	22
	Adopting principles of management	24
	Obtaining adequate funds	28
	Obtaining educational infrastructure	29
	Supervising teachers and students	30
	Involving stakeholders	31
▶	SECTION 3 ACHIEVING EFFECTIVE MANAGEMENT AND SUPERVISION IN THE PRIMARY SCHOOL II	34
	Dealing with school discipline	34
	Inservice education for teachers	36
	Conditions of service of teachers	38
	Adopting a policy of cost-sharing	39
	Innovation/improvisation by teachers	41
	Constant review of the curriculum	43
▶	SECTION 4 ADMINISTRATIVE FUNCTIONS OF THE PRIMARY SCHOOL HEAD I	46
	Administration versus management	46
	Planning	47
	Organizing	49
	Staffing	50
	Directing	41
	Controlling	52
▶	SECTION 5 ADMINISTRATIVE FUNCTIONS OF THE PRIMARY SCHOOL HEAD II	56
	Coordinating	56
	Reporting	58
	Budgeting	60
	Managing resources	61
▶	SECTION 6 TRENDS IN EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION IN GHANA	66
	Education ordinances and committees of pre-independence era	66
	The accelerated development plan of 1951	67
	The Education Act of 1961	68
	Education Review Committee of 1967	68
	The Dzobo Committee of 1972	71

▶	INTRODUCTION	76
▶	SECTION 1 POWER AND LEADERSHIP	78
	Leadership and influence	78
	Types of power	79
	Factors of effective leadership	81
	Positive personal qualities and interpersonal relationships	83
▶	SECTION 2 LEADERSHIP STYLES	88
	Meaning of leadership style	88
	Autocratic style	88
	Democratic style	90
	Laissez-faire style	92
▶	SECTION 3 LEADERSHIP: ROLES AND PERCEPTIONS	96
	Role versus perception	96
	Role and leadership	97
	Group and individual roles	98
	Leader behaviour	100
	Tips for leaders	101
▶	SECTION 4 MOTIVATION	104
	What is motivation?	104
	Basic characteristics of motivation	105
	Types of motivation	106
	Motivation and performance	108
	Need theories and motivation	109
	Human needs and motivation	111
	Job satisfaction and productivity	113
	Factors that contribute to productivity	114
	Productivity in education	115
▶	SECTION 5 DATA FOR SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION AND SUPERVISION	118
	Definition of data	118
	Types of data	119
	Source of primary school data	119
	Ways of generating data	120
	Data collection through records and documents	121
	Utilizing data	122
	Guidelines for data gathering	123
	Importance of data	123
	The computer and data bank	124
	Data for school administration and supervision	125
▶	SECTION 6 FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION: BUDGETING AND FINANCIAL CONTROL	128
	Meaning of financial administration	128
	Administration and finance	128
	Principles of financial administration	129
	Budget and budgeting	130
	The budget document	132
	Purposes and uses of a budget	133
	Financial control	134

▶	INTRODUCTION	140
▶	SECTION 1 THE CONCEPT OF SUPERVISION	142
	Case study	142
	What supervision of instruction is	143
	Dimensions in an educational enterprise	144
	Who is a supervisor?	145
	The personnel in charge of supervision of instruction	146
▶	SECTION 2 OBJECTIVES AND FUNCTIONS OF INSTRUCTIONAL SUPERVISION	148
	The need for instructional supervision	148
	Objectives of instructional supervision	149
	Tasks of instructional supervision	151
▶	SECTION 3 OPERATION OF SUPERVISION OF INSTRUCTION	156
	Principles governing the operation of instructional supervision	156
	The organisation of instructional supervision	158
	Supervision of instruction from the district level	158
	Supervision of instruction at the school level	160
▶	SECTION 4 INSTRUCTIONAL SUPERVISION AT THE CLASSROOM LEVEL	164
	Using observation as a tool for instructional supervision in the Classroom	164
	Clinical supervision	168
	Clinical supervision versus traditional supervision	168
	What is clinical supervision?	169
	Traditional supervisor versus clinical supervisor	172
▶	SECTION 5 PROBLEMS OF INSTRUCTIONAL SUPERVISION IN GHANA	174
	Indefinite location of authority and responsibility	174
	Lack of time for supervision	175
	Negative attitude of teachers toward supervisors	177
	Lack of mobility on the part of supervisors	177
	Solving the problems of instructional supervision	178
▶	SECTION 6 MANAGING INSTRUCTIONAL TIME	180
	What instructional time means	180
	Syllabus and scheme of work	181
	Regulations on instructional time	182
	Planning the school timetable	183
	Managing instructional time in the classroom	183

▶	INTRODUCTION	188
▶	SECTION 1 SCHOOL-COMMUNITY RELATIONS	190
	School community versus school's community	190
	Why the school should relate to the community	192
	Benefits of school-community relations	192
	Barriers to school-community relations	195
▶	SECTION 2 PRINCIPLES OF GOOD SCHOOL-COMMUNITY RELATIONS	198
	Principles underlying good school-community relations	198
	Practical ways through which the school can relate with in the community	200
▶	SECTION 3 DECENTRALISATION: TYPES AND BENEFITS	204
	What is decentralisation?	204
	Financial decentralisation	204
	Educational decentralisation	205
	Forms of decentralisation	205
	The rationale for decentralisation	206
	Benefits of decentralisation	207
▶	SECTION 4 EFFORTS AT DECENTRALISATION IN GHANA	210
	Problems of decentralisation	210
	Efforts at decentralisation in Ghana	211
	Reasons for the failure of past decentralisation attempts	213
	Some achievements of Ghana towards decentralisation	214
▶	SECTION 5 TEACHER PARTICIPATION IN PRIMARY SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION	216
	What is participation	216
	Importance of participation	216
	Barriers to effective participation	217
	Modes of participation	218
	Delegation	218
	Teamwork	220
	Empowerment	221
▶	SECTION 6 VARIOUS PLAYERS IN PRIMARY SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION	224
	The Ghana Education Service (GES)	224
	District education oversight committee (DEOC)	225
	District Education Planning Team (DEPT)	226
	School Management Committee (SMC)	227
	Unit Committee	229
	Zonal Coordinators	230
	Parent-Teacher Association (PTA)	231

